Important Reading

My minor in college was Philosophy. Yes the University of Louisville has a Philosophy Department! To get my minor in Philosophy I read a lot of interesting thinker's works and some not so interesting. One thinker that I enjoyed was Jean-Paul Sartre.

Last week I ran across a wonderful quote from Sartre that I had not read before in all of my text books. The quote was in one of my BOATING magazines!!! Usually I pick up one of my boat books to relax and to learn about boat bling or boat electronics or anchors and such. So why was Sartre in my fun reading?

Here's the quote. I'd be interested in what YOU think it means. What application does it have for the Church? Let's talk about it the next time I see you.

"Only the guy who isn't rowing has time to rock the boat."

Jean-Paul Sartre

We are Disciples of Christ,

A movement for wholeness in a fragmented world. As part of the one body of Christ, we welcome all to the Lord's Table as God has welcomed us.
