A message from Rev. Dann

Change My Brothers and Sisters

As your Interim Minister, I would like to thank you.

You are the seventh congregation (eighth I suppose depending on how we count Guthrie); I have served as an Interim. Each congregation struggled with changes. Some changes came with hard fought battles in those churches.

But here at First Christian Church, I propose a change and you all say “WHEN?” When can we make that happen? So I thank you and applaud your enthusiasm. You have welcomed what many churches have struggled to accomplish.

I like to look at the plaque on the outside of our building that declares this church began in 1841. Think of all the changes that had to occur to bring this congregation through wars and depressions and floods to this point in time.

What a joy to serve a church that embraces the future while celebrating the past!

With thanksgiving,

Dann
