A message from Rev. Dann

Giving Thanks

I wrote a prayer for our last fellowship dinner and hundreds...or scores...perhaps tens of people. OK one or two folks asked me for a copy of the prayer. It was a prayer of thanksgiving. In driving from Russellville to Guthrie and Guthrie to Russellville, I've seen a lot of grain trucks. I've also noticed that at a lot of road intersections there are small piles of grain. I assume from trucks turning and twisting to get on the main highway and making their loads shift and spill. So here's the prayer I offered in thanksgiving:

O Lord God,

Everywhere we look we see farmers harvesting corn and beans. Huge combines work the fields. Large trucks carry the harvest to elevators and grain bins.

On some intersections of farm roads, I've seen spilled corn... not much.. but a little...so little no one stops to scoop it up. Yet there are people in Puerto Rico without food or water tonight because of hurricanes. There are folks in California without home because of fires. There are people in Texas still cleaning up after floods. And there are refugees in Syria trying to escape wars.

Tonight O Lord we ask your blessings upon our abundance that we share tonight. And we ask that you bless the small portions we have scooped up from our own roadsides to send through Week of Compassion to those who are hurting around the world and nearby. Hold your children close O Lord God our Protector. Amen.

Giving Thanks for all of you,
Dann
