As most of you know Kay and I were blessed with our first Grandchild, Hannah just a few weeks ago. Here are my words I expressed to Hannah.

Dear Hannah,

You came into our world on July 9, 2020. You're Grammy and I had always hoped to be at our first grandchild's birth but because of the circumstances with the Pandemic everything changed. When you're Grammy and I first heard you were born we cried tears of joy. You are such an incredible blessing to us. Even though you had only been in the world for a few minutes our love for you is to the moon and back. In fact we have been praying for you even before you were conceived.

Hannah, I want to be the best Granddad possible, but I want you to know I will make many mistakes. But please forgive me and hear my commitments I am making to you and to God as your life unfolds.

I promise to pray for you. I will pray for your health, for God's direction in your life and even start praying for the right man as your future husband. Above all I will pray for your salvation and pray that you will discover the grace and love that Jesus Christ has for you and that you will have the faith to put your trust in Him as your Lord and Savior. To me there is nothing more important.

I promise to be supportive of your Parents in all they do to raise you in the right direction. You have been given an incredible mom and dad. I will pray for them daily for wisdom in their parenting.

I promise to always be there for you. As you get older I already have visions of you coming to the farm and riding the horses, driving the tractor and swimming at the lake. I can't wait, so grow up fast, OK!!!

I promise to be your biggest fan. I don't know the paths and adventures you will pursue but I do know that God has a great plan for your life. Whatever you do with His help you will be successful. It will be so exciting to see how God directs you and how He plans to use you. It will be such joy watching your life blossom.

Hannah, long before you were ever imagined God gave me a special calling. God gave me an opportunity to minister and bless people as they try to find meaning in life. This calling has been a part of your Family for many years and your great Grandfather left us this legacy of Love, Joy, and Peace that is demonstrated in a heart committed to the Lord Jesus Christ. It is my hope that I can pass that on to you so that your Great Grandfather's many years were not in vain.

Hannah, I love you so much and maybe one day when you have your own children you will understand.

Your Grandad
