LARRY'S LINES

I recently read a small book entitled "The Red Sea Rules" by a Robert Morgan. The book centers on 10 God given strategies for difficult times. The "rules" are based on the experience of Moses and the people of Israel as they fled Egypt to go to the Promised Land and how the Red Sea parted for them. (If you need refreshing read Exodus 14).

I do not have enough space to give the ten rules but I do want to share a quote and a Scripture passage from the preface of the book:

"These aren't ten quick-and-easy steps to instant solutions...but Exodus 14 provided a Biblical method to process difficulties by faith, in the light of God's almighty presence, providence, promises, and power.'

"The Red Sea may roll before us; the desert may entrap us; the enemy may press on our heels. The past may seem implausible and the future impossible, but God works in ways we cannot see. He will make a way of escape for His weary, but waiting, children.

You made a way through the sea and paths through the deep waters, but your footprints were not seen.

You led you people like a flock

by using Moses and Aaron (Psalm 77:19-20, Contemporary English Version)

You may not have Moses and Aaron, but you have a God who is working, many times behind the scenes, to get you through any difficulty you might be facing. As Rev. Morgan says, "No sea is deeper than the ocean of God's love."

I look forward to seeing you in worship this Sunday and every Sunday.

In Christ,

Larry
