LARRY'S LINES

*The season of Thanksgiving is passed, but hopefully, not the spirit of it. As Paul writes in 2 Thessalonians 5, "In everything give thanks, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus."

*We are now in the season of Advent. Why celebrate Advent, you ask? Because Advent calls us to prepare ourselves in our world for the celebration of the incarnation--the presence within history of Jesus the Christ. It is the acknowledgment that He is Emmanuel, God with us. It is preparing ourselves as His people to share His life in our world. Let's do so as we go about our busyness in the next few weeks.

I look forward to seeing you in worship this month.

In Christ,

Larry
